

MICHAEL MARINANGELI

SENIOR PROJECT SUPERINTENDENT

Michael Marinangeli began his career at Hubbell Realty Company in 2008 as Operations Manager for Hubbell Homes. He brings more than 30 years of construction experience and served as a Commercial Construction Project Superintendent for Hubbell Construction Services before being promoted in September 2016 to the role of Senior Project Superintendent.

Michael is responsible for managing the day-to-day project operations of all construction-related activities. This includes scheduling subcontractors, corresponding with architects and engineers, meeting budgets, managing project schedules, maintaining safety and overseeing all activity on the construction site. His extensive work on several multi-family projects allows Michael to deliver a quality project on time and within budget.
